The Grand Jury yesterday dismissed the complaint against Police Sergeant Cooper, of the Tre-mont squad, who was accused of shooting Fred-erick Dullon, a boy, on Halloween. The youth received some birdshot while skylarking near Cooper's house at Woodlawn.

The work of the New-York Bible and Fruit Mission will be materially aided by the receipts of a broom sale held yesterday afternoon at No. 24 West Twelfth-st. The brooms are made in the broom factory of the society, at Nos. 416-422 East Twenty-sixth-st.; they are the work of ex-convicts. whom the society endeavors to save from tempta-tion after they leave their place of confinement and to aid them to help themselves.

The architects appointed to examine the 140 comtitive plans for the new Municipal Building have been at work on them a month. They have got them narrowed down now to eighteen, having rejected the remainder. By the middle of December they expect to sift the eighteen so that only the six required plans will remain for final arbitra-

Judgment for $25,814 was entered yesterday against James M. Ashley, jr., who was vice-president of the Toledo, Ann Arbor and North Michigan Railroad Company, in favor of John S. James & Co., stock brokers, on a note for $24,923, dated April 28, payable six months after date.

A private hearing was held in Justice Burke's room in the Yorkville Police Court yesterday in the case of Miss Elvina Clemmens, a dancer at the Irving Place Theatre. The Gerry society maintained that she was under sixteen years old. Miss Clemmens is of an extremely youthful appearance, but her mother, Mrs. Emilie Klein, proved to Justice Public Control of the Control of th tice Burke's satisfaction that Elvina was seventeen years old last June.

At the evangelistic meeting for business men in the John Street Methodist Episcopal Church this afternoon at 1 o'clock the Rev. Dr. John Hall, Mr. Pearson, the evangelist, and the Rev. A. C. Dixon will speak. Mr. and Mrs. Sturgis will sing.

Special evangelistic services are held every night, except Saturday, at the Hope Baptist Church, One-hundred-and-fourth-st. and the Boulevard, by the Rev. Richard Hartley, pastor, who is assisted by the Rev. W. J. Stewart.

The funeral of Dr. W. T. Carmody, the veterinary surgeon, who died on November 21 from pneu-monia resulting from a cold contracted at the Horse Show, was held at his home, No. 60 West Thirty-seventh-st., yesterday afternoon. The burial was at Woodlawn. The Knights Templar were presen

Although no official announcement has yet been made of the exact date on which the mills of the Alexander Smith & Son Carpet Company will re-sume work, it is known that the preparations for starting up are under way, and information comes unofficial but thoroughly reliable source that the mills will be in operation by January next. . . . Miss Louise Pitkin, of Locust Hill-ave. next. . . Miss Louise Pitkin, of Locust Hill-ave., will give a tea on Saturday afternoon from 4 until 7 to meet her friend, Miss Overaker. The evening classes in mechanical and architectural drawing at the High School Building opened with a much larger attendance than was experted. Over ninety men of various trades are registered. Steps are being taken to organize a Good Government Club in this city. Despite the general complaint of dull times there are few vacant stores in Yonkers, and those in new buildings are usually taken as soon as ready. . . The regular drill of the 4th Separate Company at the armory last evening was followed by a reception and dance. The committee in charge consisted of Sergeant Arbuckle, chairman; Sergeant Shipman, Corporals Fulton and Rivinius and Privates Dean, Blakemore and Martin. The second in the series of winter "smokers" will be held at the armory on Monday evening.

WHITE PLAINS.

Felix Gilhooly, sixty years old, proprietor of a hotel at Martine-a'e. and Brookfield-st., White Plains, and Osmond Missbach, a bartender in the Plains, and Osmond Missbach, a bartender in the Harlem Cafe, in Orawampum-st, were thrown from a buggy last evening while returning from Kensico, and seriously injured. Gilhooly's Jaw was dislocated and three ribs were broken, while Missbach's right leg was broken below the knee. The injured men were found in a helpless condition in Broadway. Dr. Magness was summoned and attended to their injuries. It is thought Gilhooly's injuries may result fatally on account of his age.

JERSEY CITY.

While painting a trolley pole at Arlington and Ocean aves., Jersey City, yesterday, Andrew Whelan lost his balance and fell to the sidewalk, a distance of twenty feet. He struck on his head, crushtance of twenty feet. He stitute that the injury was fatal. Father Shehan, of St. Patrick's Church, who was passing, knelt by Whelan and said the prayers for the dying. Before he had finished, Whelan breathed his last. The body was taken to the morgue, and notice was sent to the dead man's family.

The committee appointed by the Republican County Committee to frame bills to be passed by the next Legislature for Essex County and the city of Newark have reported what they have done thus far. They recommend that the present boards shall consist of three members each, to be elected by the people, with minority representation on each board. The Common Council shall consist of nine members, to be elected by the people at large, with nower to change ward lines. The Freeholders shall be elected at large, with like powers of changing districts.

In the County Register's Office at Newark there was filed yesterday a mortgage for 10,000 sterling. It was drawn by the English syndicate controlling the Hill Union Brewing Company, of Newark, in favor of the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, of New-York. The mortgage was executed at No. 18 Victorie-st., Westminster, London, and covers the Hill Brewing Company's property in Newark. boards shall consist of three members each, to be

In the Circuit Court, at Newark, John Kelly, the lad whose right log was cut off by a Bank-st. car, got a verdict of $12,000. He sued for $25,000. The Newark Fassenger Railway Company will appeal to the higher courts.

NEW-BRUNSWICK Abraham Messler, a wealthy farmer, who lived at Spotswood, in Middlesex County, died yesterday morning, as the result of injuries received in a run morning, as the result of injuries received in a away accident on Tuesday afternoon. He was returning from Rhode Hall with a load of cabage, and his team became frightened and ran away. He was thrown out on his head and made unconscious. He was well known throughout the county, and was the brother-in-law of Sheriff Richard Serviss. He was seventy years old.

MORRISTOWN. Josiah Brown, Editor of "The Morris County Chronicle," was found dead at 9:30 yesterday mornchronicie. Was found dead at 3.5 years and ing in his newspaper office. It is supposed that his death was caused by heart failure. He was a bachelor and lived alone in apartments adjoining his office. He was forty-five years old, and had been the Editor of "The Chronicle" since 1876. He had been in ill health for some time. He was a Free Mason.

ALFRED YOUNGS FALLS DEAD IN THE STREET. Alfred Youngs, fifty years old, who formerly was a wealthy man, but who had lost most of his money by unfortunate speculations, died suddenly from apoplexy on the sidewalk at Broadway and Twentyfirst-st. at 1 a. m. yesterday. Mr. Youngs had been a member of the Union Club since May 6, 1871, and his acquaintances said that he was a typical club man. He had few wants outside of the club, and he was regular in his attendance at the club-rooms. Since he lost his money he had tried to live within his means. He boarded with Mrs. Bearden, at No. 64 West Thirty-seventh-st., and when he died he had in his pocket a bill for board, amounting to $129, which Mrs. Bearden had sent to his brother-in-law, J. D. Cheever, trensurer of the New-York Belting and Packing Company, at No. 15 Park Row. G. A. Meyer, of No. 470 Lexington-ave., is another brother-in-law. For some time Mr. Youngs had lived apart from his wife, whose home is in East Fifty-sixth-st. Mr. Youngs was at the Union Club Wednesday night, and left the clubhouse to go this room in the boarding-house only a few minutes before he died. The funeral will be held at the home of Mr. Meyer, in Lexington-ave. a member of the Union Club since May 6, 1871, and
